9. Any interests or benefits not declared above which may (or may appear to) influence your decision-making, or might be seen to affect your ability to perform your duties

I am employed by University of Cambridge as a Senior Lecturer (step 63 of grade 10 with a stipend of £62,727 from 01/08/19). I am a member of the Universities Superannuation Scheme (USS).

I am a Bye-Fellow of Emmanuel College. I receive payment as a Director of Studies and for supervising to the sum of few thousand pounds per annum.

I have dining rights at Selwyn, Fitzwilliam and Sidney Sussex Colleges (about 25 meals per annum).

I am occasionally employed by Cambridge Colleges as a supervisor and/or interviewer. In the past three years, I have been so employed by Hughes Hall, Newnham College and Lucy Cavendish College.

My wife is employed by the University of Cambridge as the Secretary of the School of Technology (grade 11). She is a member of the Universities Superannuation Scheme (USS).

My children were educated at independent schools. One is a student at the University of Cambridge; the other is a student at the University of Oxford. Both have been employed occasionally by the University of Cambridge as Playworkers on the University Holiday Playscheme.
