
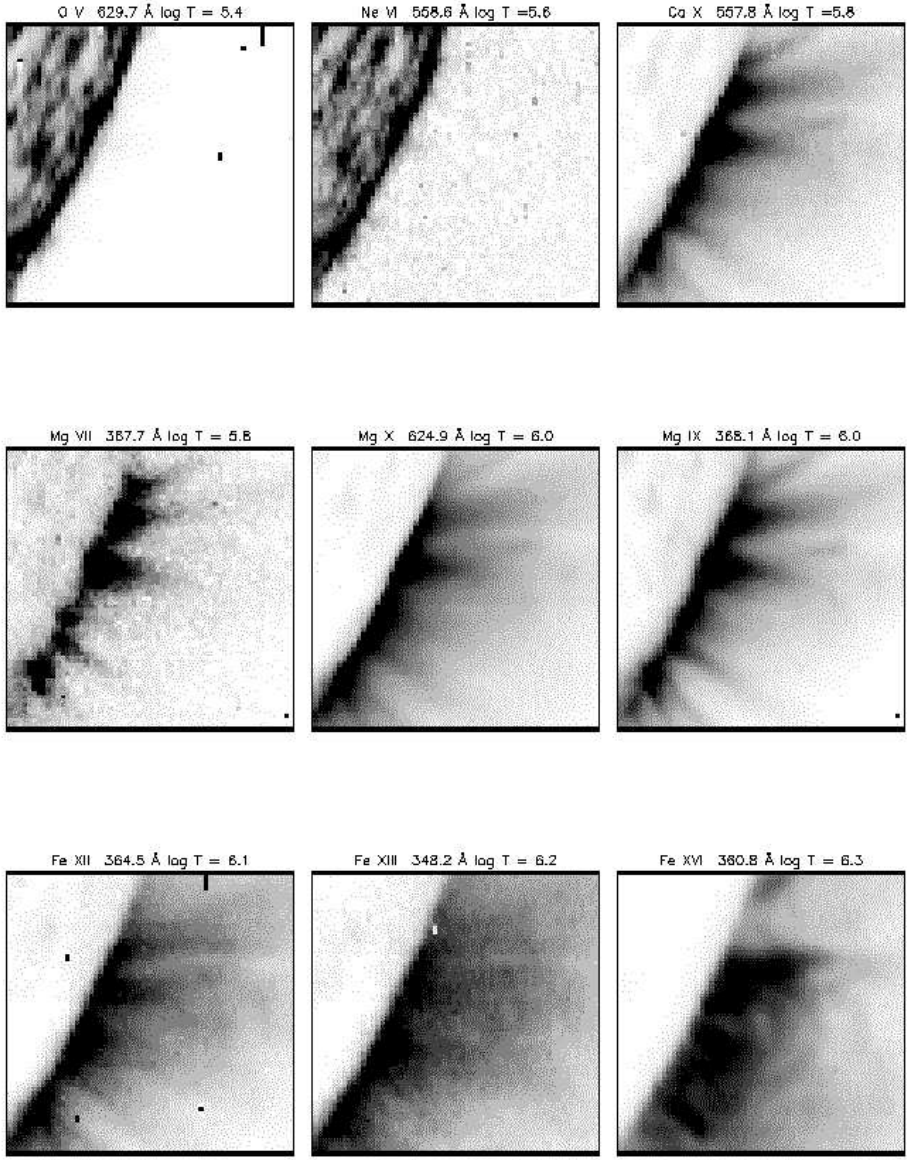

Figure 2: Monochromatic images (negative) of the NIS observation. The loops are only seen in upper transition region lines (Mg VII, Ca X, Mg IX) emitted in the range Log T = 5.8–6.0, a clear indication of their isothermality.