

2030 vision

for the Cambridge sub-region

Agriculture and green spaces

Monday 5 December 2011 at the Centre for Mathematical Sciences,
Wilberforce Road, Cambridge CB3 0WA

See <http://cambridgeppf.org/vision/5/preparatory.shtml> for notes of a preparatory meeting on 18 July 2011

13.00 Lunch

13.30 Introduction, Gordon Johnson (Chair of the 2030 Vision project)

Chair: Catherine Cairns (formerly of Natural England)

- Robin Upton (Senior Farmer of Park Farm, Herringswell)
Challenges for food growing
- Sir David Baulcombe (Department of Plant Sciences, Cambridge University)
How science can help
- Jonathan Billingsley (Director, The Landscape Partnership)
Multifunctional green spaces and ecosystem services
- Richard Powell (Regional Director, National Trust)
Case studies of multifunctional green spaces

14.45 Break out groups

- Do you agree/disagree with what you have just heard?
- What are the main constraints to achieving multifunctional ecosystem services in green spaces and to increasing agricultural output?
- How can our sub-region take a lead?

16.00 Tea/coffee

16.30 Feedback session

17.00 The next steps?

17.30 End

Facilitators:

Cllr Ray Mannng (South Cambridgeshire District Council)

Peter Fane (RICS EAST)

Professor Ian Hodge (Department of Land Economy, University of Cambridge)

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

RSA

FeCRA

Ray Manning Robin Upton Ben Mackowiecki Marie-Ann Ha Charles Lang Ben Phalan Robert Mungovan Jeremy Clayton Michael Aubrey Alex Nichols  Carolyn Gohler	Peter Fane Jonathan Billingsley Malcolm Lyons Robert Wise Richard Pemberton Martin Jenkins Cameron Adams Steve West Catherine Cairns Lydia Smith  Peter Landshoff	Ian Hodge David Baulcombe Richard Powell Geoff Dodgson William Hudson John Macmillan Elizabeth Ranelagh Richard Townley Paul Hammett Nancy Harrison  Gordon Johnson
Meeting Room 4	Meeting Room 1	Meeting Room 5